PASTOR'S MESSAGE

DO WE NEED TO BE DIFFERENT FROM THE LATIN CHURCH?

Dear Knanaya youngsters,

As many of our youngsters are receiving First Holy Communion and Chrismation that are two among the three sacraments of initiation in the Catholic Church, I consider this as a relevant occasion to clarify some of the common doubts you might have.

Since most of the Catholics in the U.S. belong to the Latin Rite and say English Mass that are short and sweet, do we need to promote Syro-Malabar Mass that are long and complicated? We normally might consider Catholic Church as one and uniform. Actually it is not. Though Catholic Church has one head, the pope, it is a communion of one western church and 21 eastern churches. This west and east comes from the ancient Roman empire where Christianity was the official religion, and east and west was a civil division of the empire based on geographical conditions. Liturgy, spirituality, church law, and religious traditions developed in different geographical areas without much interdependence. All these churches are of equal status and are rich heritage of the church according to God's plan. All the members of particular churches are supposed to protect and keep up their traditions rather than jumping from one to another.

Syro-Malabar church to which we belong are one among the 21 Eastern Churches and the Latin church is the only western church. Even if we were baptized in Latin church, still we do not belong to Latin rite according to church law. According to the norms of the church, "It is not possible simply to be a 'catholic' - a member 'at large' of the universal Catholic Church. A person is always a member of a specific autonomous ritual Church and only as such is a person a member of the Catholic Church. In Baptism, a person is enrolled in an autonomous ritual Church and the Church to which that person belongs is determined by church law. A person, no matter by whom or where or in what liturgical ceremony he or she is baptized, belongs to the autonomous ritual Church to which he or she should belong in accordance to the norms of law." (Eastern Catholics in the United States of America, page 24)

Though baptism, confirmation (Chrismation in the Eastern Churches), and Holy Communion that are known as Sacraments of Initiation are administered together in all the 22 churches for adult baptism, they are done separate in the Latin Church. Babies of Eastern Church parents have a right to receive all of them together within a few days after their birth. It shall not be postponed for any other convenience. Normally it shall be administered in one's own church by the pastor or his delegate. It is not a private or a family function but a celebration of the parish welcoming new members of the parish.

Though all the three sacraments of initiation were done together in the Syro-Malabar church until the 16th century, this was changed because we came under the Latin hierarchy when the Portuguese missionaries took over church leadership in India. Now we are going back to original traditions of the Eastern Churches. So most of us did not receive Chrismation and Holy Communion along with baptism. That is why we offer them together now for the first communicants.

Like baptism, the first holy communion and Chrismation are to be done in one's own church by the pastor or his delegate. "Holy Communion may be received in any Catholic Church. Since sacramental initiation in the mystery of salvation is perfected in the reception of the Divine Eucharist, children of Eastern Catholic Churches who have not received the Eucharist at the time of their Christian initiation, should receive their first Holy Communion in their own autonomous Church." Since we study in Catholic Schools belonging to Latin parishes, we have to be careful not to receive the sacrament of confirmation again in the eighth grade, because it can be received only once.

Later when it comes to the time of marriage, "It is the canonical tradition of Eastern Churches that marriage is to be celebrated before the pastor of the groom."

Just as we feel proud of the nation, state, community, and family that we are born, we should also feel proud of the Syro-Malabar church in which we are born. As Knanaya Catholics, we are happy that it was our ancestors, especially Bishop Joseph of Urha, who introduced Syiac Liturgy in South India when they migrated there in AD 345. So this liturgy is our patrimony and we need to protect and keep it. That is why we have separate Syro-Malabar mass even in English so that we keep it up for centuries to come. May God bless all, especially those who are receiving the First Holy Communion and Chrismation this weekend.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Abraham Mutholath

Our Blood Drive

- GEORGE KARIKKAL

The blood drive held on April 13th was a very successful event, a total of 23 people donated. To make this a successful event I received support from Joy Muthukattil and Dr. Tessey Kanjirathinkal who helped me with the registration process and gathering donors. I would like to thank everyone that donated blood as well as those who were willing to donate, but couldn't due to certain circumstances; this would not have happened if it wasn't for the 23 donors. Everyone that donated blood and supported the blood drive should be very proud of themselves because all the blood that was collected is now being used to help the many less fortunate people in the world.

There are a lot of people in need for blood and there is no substitute for blood. It has to come from one person in order to give to another. A critical number of voluntary donations are required every day to meet the need for blood in most areas being served by Life Source and Red Cross. However, there is a constant shortage, and falling short means there may not be enough blood for someone like you. Only fifty percent of the people that can donate blood actually do. Blood drives are services of generous, strong and decent people bound by beliefs beyond themselves. The honor, spirit and resources of the people come forth with neighbors helping neighbors in need. We all expect blood to be there for us, but barely a fraction of those who can give do. Yet sooner or later, virtually all of us will face a time of great vulnerability in which we will need blood. And that time is all too often unexpected.

I would like to extend my gratitude to Fr. Mutholath for giving me the opportunity to conduct this blood drive in our church and all the other parish members who helped make this event possible.
